The Weather.

For Kentucky—Showers Tuesday.

Four negro murderers were executed Friday, three in Virginia and one in Maryland.

Central City has become a city of the fourth class. W. D. McElhinny is the mayor.

Marion N. Montgomery, a miner, fell 180 feet into a coal shaft at Seebree and was instantly killed.

Hop H. Holman, of Madisonville, will move to Louisville Sept. 1st to become cashier of the Bank of Commerce.

A packing house employe at South Omaha, Neb., found a diamond set in fine gold in the stomach of a cow. The stone was valued at $100.

Arguments by attorneys in the Hargis-Callahan murder case were begun Saturday at Beattyville, after the jury had been instructed by Judge Dorsey. The case went to the jury yesterday afternoon.

Howard Blanford, who was supposed to have been killed in a wreck in Alabama several years ago, and who has a wife and two children in Owensboro, has been discovered alive and well at Sidney, Australia.

Vice Admiral Chouknin, commander of the Black Sea fleet, was shot and fatally wounded while walking in a garden by someone supposed to be in sympathy with the revolutionists.

Hon. L. K. Taylor, of Paducah has solved the trouble of a white swelling that has made one leg useless all his life, by having the diseased member amputated. He is in a Louisville infirmary rapidly recovering from the operation.

The Government of France, after many years of persecution of Capt. Alfred Dreyfus for the crimes of another man, last week restored him to his old place in the army amid scenes of tumultuous disorder in the Chamber of Deputies. The debate was so acrimonious that a fight occurred that later led to a duel between two members, in which one received a sword thrust in the lung.

At Laredo, Texas, while standing at the door bidding her lover goodbye, Miss Soledad Valdez saw a ray of moonlight that she thought was a twig on the banisters of the piazza. She picked it up to throw it off and found it a live electric wire. She was instantly killed. J. E. Wrangle, her companion, attempted to rescue her and may also die from the shock. A neighbor, who happened to be passing, attempted to free the bodies from the wire and was rendered unconscious.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Eruptions

The only way to get rid of pimples and other eruptions is to cleanse the blood, improve the digestion, stimulate the kidneys, liver and skin. The medicine to take is Hood's Sarsaparilla Which has cured thousands.

Hon. William Preston Kimball, of Lexington, like Ben Johnson, of Nelson, has realized his ambition to go to Congress, by the unanimous vote of his district convention. Kimball had two opponents, but they developed so little strength that both withdrew. The nominee in the famous Ashland district is a member of the noted Preston family and one of the most gifted of Bluegrass orators. He has long been recognized as congressional timber.

Capt. Robert Tyler, Deputy Internal Revenue Collector, and one of the best known and most popular men in Kentucky, died last week at the residence of his son-in-law, S. M. Brooks, in Shepherdsville. Capt. Tyler was sixty-three years of age. He had been confined to his bed for six months with cancer of the stomach. He was a lifetime Democrat until 1899, when he became a Republican.

Henry Clay Evans, of Hamilton county, former Commissioner of Pensions, and recently American consul general in London, was nominated last week by the Republican convention for Governor of Tennessee. The Democratic nominee is Hon. John M. Pattison, of Memphis. Evans' nomination was a dethronement of the Brownlow machine that has for years dominated the Republican party of that state.

Nathaniel Jackson, a negro, aged twenty-three years, who was shot by another negro, lived eight weeks with a bullet in his heart. He died at the city hospital in Henderson last week and a physician who held a postmortem examination, took a 32-caliber bullet from the apex of the heart, just under the skin, the bullet having gone almost through that organ. He died finally of blood poisoning.

The Courier-Journal says the election of Mott Ayers as Secretary of the Campaign Committee was a victory over Percy Haly, who has heretofore filled the place. As the election was by acclamation and Haly was at Frankfort presiding over a congressional convention the same day, the excitement of the contest was not apparent to the casual observer.

The East Tennessee Telephone Company has pulled out of Harrodsburg because it will not accept the rates fixed by the city council. The city is left temporarily without telephone service.

An automobile, in which Vice-President Fairbanks was riding, crashed into a buggy driven by Jos. M. Dougherty, near Danville, Ill. Mr. Fairbanks was not injured, but Mr. Dougherty was painfully bruised.

The Sherman anti-trust law will get squarely before the United States Supreme Court for the first time since it became a law, under the pleadings perfected Saturday in the case of the alleged Fertilizer Trust, under indictment in the Federal Court in Nashville.

It is said that Hopkinsville lost the State encampment by reason of the opposition of the local officers of the Third Regiment. The members of the Commercial Club and City Council who were working to get the encampment are very much disappointed over the turn the affair took.

A FIGHT ON FOR CERTAIN.

Haly, the Warwick of the State Administration, Issues a Card.

ATTACKS S. W. HAGER.

Declares He's Unfit As a Candidate For Governor.

Louisville, Ky., July 14.—The State house occupants have split up among themselves.

Rumors of this have been brewing for weeks, but the break has undoubtedly come at last.

Percy Haly, the Warwick of the Beckham administration, in a long card in the Louisville Post this afternoon, bitterly attacks Auditor S. W. Hager, pronouncing him unfit as a candidate for Governor, and declares for Judge Pryor, Louis McQuown, Ollie James, Joe Robbins or Charlie Wheeler for Governor, or some man who is capable of presenting his claims and carrying his party's standard on the stump.

He also attacks Graham Vreeland, managing editor of the Courier-Journal and brother of Hubert Vreeland, candidate for Secretary of State.

He charges Graham Vreeland with falsely representing him (Haly) in the Courier-Journal as an aspirant for the place of Secretary to the Sub-committee of the State Committee that will conduct the State primary, and making it appear that he was defeated by Mott Ayres. He says he was not a candidate for the place and wouldn't have it.

He says Graham Vreeland is the real candidate for Secretary of State, and charges him with using the columns of the Courier-Journal to promote the Vreeland political interests.

He also implicates Henry Hines, appointee of Gov. Beckham to the office of State Inspector, and now a candidate for Auditor, as an accomplice of the Vreelands and Hager in the capture of the Sub-committee organization, but goes no further as to Hines. He leaves his case for future decision.

He bids defiance to the Courier-Journal influence. There is much excitement among the politicians and it looks like a fight between the Frankfort machine and the Louisville machine.

Hager will have the support of Haldeman, the Vreelands and the city administration of Louisville, and it is thought that Hager, Henry Prewitt, Insurance Commissioner, and Judge Allie Young, who are his close allies, may undertake to form an alliance with Senator McCreary.

Hager and Hines' friends undoubtedly control the Sub-committee, but it is claimed that Beckham and Haly still hold a majority of the State Central Committee.

This, on the other hand, is denied, and the claim is set up that W. B. Haldeman will be elected by Hager's and Hines' friends to the place on the State Central Committee now held by Judge Lassing, as soon as Lassing announces himself as a candidate for Appellate Judge, whether Lassing formally resigns or not, and that Jerry Sullivan, of Richmond, who is McCreary's closest friend, will be elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dick Miller.

It is said at Frankfort to-night that Railroad Commissioner Hon. C. C. McCord will announce himself a candidate for Governor in a few days. It is also said that great pressure is being brought to bear on the venerable Judge Pryor, ex-Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals, to get him to enter the race for the nomination for Governor.

It is not denied that Haly, Lassing and Eli Brown, Jr., went on to New York to urge Ollie James to run for Governor, just before he sailed for Europe. The discovery of this is what aroused Hager and his friends to fight Haly.

There are persistent rumors that Senator Blackburn will be a candidate for Governor in a few days.

The Delineator For August.

A wealth of suggestions for the newest summer gowns is to be found in the August Delineator, which is interesting, not only from the standpoint of fashion, but for its reading as well. Among the fiction of the number is the second installment of "The Chauffeur and the Chaperon," the delightful motor-boat romance by The Williamsons, authors of many automobile stories; also two entertaining short stories by Carroll Watson Rankin and Marvin Dana. Carolyn Wells contributes the "Rubaiyat of Summer Khayyam," written in her inimitable style. Clara E. Laughlin tells the story of the life of Rembrandt, whose pictures are held invaluable in the world's best collections of art, and Gustav Kobbe writes of the famous civil war song of the South, "Dixie," and its composer, Dan Emmett, the old minstrel. In the campaign for safe foods, Mrs. Abel contributes a chapter on "The Market Inspector and the Buyer," which concludes this series of notable articles. There are numerous articles devoted to the interest of the home:—The Kitchen, House Furnishing, Needlework and Dressmaking; and the children's pages include a variety of features having for their purpose the entertainment of young folks.

Lived With Bullet in Heart.

Accepted dicta of the medical men received a severe shock at Henderson Wednesday in the announcement by Dr. J. W. Edwards that Nathaniel Jackson, colored, had lived eight weeks with a bullet that had plowed its way diagonally through the heart, its point of entrance being in the upper left hand side of that organ and being found to the right of the apex, about a quarter or a half inch from the lower exterior.

The conditions under which Jackson held on to his lease of life for the eight weeks lacking only two days after he received the wound that finally caused his death are unprecedented. Cases are known among the medical men where persons receiving wounds in the heart have recovered, but those even are rare, but no case is known, so far as can be ascertained, where any one held onto life for a time exceeding seven weeks with a hole almost entirely through that organ of life, the heart.—Henderson Gleaner.

The Old Reliable Jewelry House of Hopkinsville is, after all, the best place to get anything in the Jewelry line. There's a record behind us, a record of over thirty years; a clean record of satisfied customers, a record of honest dealings, for honest quality, honest prices. It's a record any Jeweler might feel proud of. And when we sell an article we have in mind that we have a record to maintain, and no slipshod methods, no careless workmanship, no lack of quality, is ever allowed to mar the record of the past. But to improve, if possible, this record, is ever our aim, and goods are sold for as low a price as it is possible to sell reliable goods.

It will pay you in the end to deal with the Old Reliable Jeweler.

New York Life.

Hopkinsville, Ky., April 30th, 1906.

Mr. Walter F. Garnett, Agent, New York Life Insurance Co., City.

Dear Sir:—It gives me pleasure to acknowledge receipt of statement of optional settlement on 20-Payment Life Policy, No. 223,593, for $1,500.00, issued at age 35, with premium of $52.50, taken out with you Apr. 29, '86. After having been insured for 20 years, I am offered a paid up policy for $1,500 and a cash dividend of $406.88, or the total value may be withdrawn in cash—$1,215.85, (which is more than I have paid in in the 20 years) or a fully paid up policy payable at my death for $2,219.00.

The cash settlement of $1,215.85 is equal to Term Insurance at $12.87 per $1,000 and an investment of the balance of premiums with 5% per cent. compound interest for twenty years. This showing is certainly a creditable one for the New York Life, and I will be pleased to give you my application for $1,000 on the Ordinary Life plan.

Yours very truly, C. E. WEST.
